Standard Conditions governing Multimodal Transport Documents (MTD), issued in accordance with Multimodal Transportation of Goods Act, 1993
[As placed on www.dgshipping.gov.in / shipping Notices / DGS Circulars / MTO]

1. Definitions

- "Carrier" means a person who is engaged in the business of transporting, for hire, goods by road, rail, inland, waterways or sea;
- "Consignee" means the person named as consignee in the multimodal transport contract;
- "Consignment" means the goods entrusted to a MTO for multimodal transportation;
- "Consignor" means the person, named in the multimodal transport contract as consignor, by whom or on whose behalf the goods covered by such contract are entrusted to a MTO for multimodal transportation;
- "Delivery" means - (i) in the case of a negotiable MTD, delivering of the consignment to, or placing the consignment at the disposal of, the consignee or any other person entitled to receive it; (ii) in the case of a non-negotiable MTD, delivering of the consignment to, or placing the consignment at the disposal of, the consignee or any person authorised by the consignee to accept delivery of the consignment on his behalf;
- "Endorsement" means the signing by the consignee or the endorsee after adding a direction on a negotiable MTD to pass the property in the goods mentioned in such document to a specified person;
- "Goods" includes - (i) containers, pallets or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods; and (ii) animals;
- "Mode of transport" means carriage of goods by road, rail, inland, waterways or sea;
- "Multimodal transportation" means carriage of goods by two or more modes of transport from the place of acceptance of the goods in India to a place of delivery of the goods outside India;
- "Multimodal transport contract" means a contract entered into by the consignor and the MTO for multimodal transportation;
- "Multimodal Transport Operator" (MTO) means any person who - (i) concludes a multimodal transport contract on his own behalf or through another person acting on his behalf; (ii) acts as principal, and not as an agent either of the consignor or of the carrier participating in the multimodal transportation, and who assumes responsibility for the performance of the said contract; and (iii) is registered under sub section (3) of section 4 of the Act.
- "Negotiable MTD" means a MTD which is - (i) made out to order and is transferable by endorsement; or (ii) made out to bearer and is transferable without endorsement.
- "Non-negotiable MTD" means a MTD which indicates only one named consignee;

2. Applicability

The provision set out and referred to in this MTD shall apply, if the transport as described on the face of the document is by two or more modes of transport from the place of acceptance of the goods in India to a place of delivery of the goods outside India.

3. Effect of Issuance of MTD

- The issuance of the MTD confers and imposes on all parties having or acquiring hereafter an interest the rights/obligations and defences set out in the conditions mentioned in this document.
- By the Issuance of the MTD, the MTO:
 - undertakes to perform and/or in his own name to procure performance of the multimodal transport including all services which are necessary to such transport from the time of taking the goods in charge to the time of delivery, and accepts responsibility for such transport and such services to the extent set out in these conditions.
 - accepts responsibility for the acts and omissions of his agents or servants, when such agents or servants are acting within their scope of their employment, as if such acts and omissions were own;
 - accepts responsibility for the acts and omissions of any other person whose services he uses for the performance of the contract evidenced by this MTD;
 - undertakes to perform or to procure performance of all acts necessary to ensure delivery;
 - assumes liability to the extent set out in these conditions of loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time of taking them into his charge and the time of delivery, and undertakes to pay compensation as set out in these conditions in respect of such loss or damage.
 - assumes liability to the extent set out in these conditions for delay in delivery of the goods and undertakes to pay compensation as set out in these conditions.

4. Negotiability and Titles to the Goods

By accepting the multimodal transportation document the consignor and his transferees agree with the MTD that, unless it is marked "non-negotiable" it shall constitute title to the goods and the holder, by endorsement of this MTD, shall be entitled to receive or to transfer the goods mentioned in this MTD.

5. Reservations

If the MTD contains particulars concerning the general nature, leading marks, number of packages or pieces, weight or quantity of the goods which the MTO or a person acting on his behalf knows, or has reasonable grounds to suspect, do not accurately represent the goods actually taken in charge, or if he has no reasonable means of checking such particulars, the MTO or a person acting on his behalf shall insert in the MTD a reservation specifying these inaccuracies, grounds of suspicion or the absence of reasonable means of checking. If the MTO or a person acting on his behalf fails to note on the MTD the apparent condition of the goods, he is deemed to have noted on the MTD that the goods were in apparent good condition.

6. Evidentiary effect of the MTD

- The MTD shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the MTO of the goods as described therein; and
- Proof to the contrary by the MTD shall not be admissible if the MTD is issued in negotiable form and has been transferred to a third party, including a consignee, who has acted in good faith in reliance on the description of goods therein.

7. Guarantee by the consignor:-

- The consignor shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the MTO the accuracy at the time the goods were taken in charge by the MTO, of particulars relating to the general nature of the goods, their marks, number weight and quantity and, if applicable to the dangerous character of the goods, as furnished by him for insertion in the MTD.
- The consignor shall indemnify the MTO against loss resulting from inaccuracies or inadequacies of the particulars. The consignor shall remain liable even if the MTD has been transferred by him. The right of the MTO to such indemnity shall in no way limit his liability under the multimodal transport contract to any person other than the consignor.

8. Dangerous goods:-

- The consignor shall mark or label dangerous goods in a suitable manner as "dangerous goods".
- Where the consignor hands over dangerous goods to the MTO or any person acting on his behalf, the consignor shall inform him of the dangerous character of the goods and, if necessary, the precautions to be taken. If the consignor fails to do so and the MTO does not otherwise have knowledge of their dangerous character then:
 - the consignor shall be liable to the MTO for all loss resulting from the shipment of such goods; and
 - the goods may at any time be unloaded, destroyed or rendered innocuous, as the circumstances may require, without payment of compensation.
- The above provisions may not be invoked by any person if during the multimodal transport he has taken the good in his charge with knowledge of their dangerous character.
- If, in cases where the provisions (2) (b) referred to above do not apply or may not be invoked, dangerous goods become an actual danger to life or circumstances may require, without payment of compensation, except where there is an obligation to contribute in general average or where the MTO is liable, in accordance with the provisions of relevant conditions.

9. Period of responsibility

- The responsibility of the MTO for the goods covers the period from the time he takes the goods in his charge to the time of their delivery. For the purpose of this responsibility, the MTO is deemed to be in charge of the goods:
 - from the time he has taken over the goods from: (i) the consignor or a person acting on his behalf; or (ii) an authority or other third party to whom, pursuant to law or regulations applicable at the place of taking charge the goods must be handed over for transport;
 - until the time he has delivered the goods: (i) by handing them over to the consignee; or (ii) by placing them at the disposal of the consignee in accordance with the multimodal transport contract or with the law or with the usage of the particulars trade applicable at the place of delivery; or (iii) by handing over the goods to an authority or other third party to whom, pursuant to law or recognitions applicable at the place of delivery, the goods must be handed over.
- Reference to the MTO in this regard shall include his servants or agents or any other person of whose services he makes use of for performance of the multimodal transport contract, and reference to the consignor or consignee shall include their servants or agents.

10. Basis of Liability

- The MTD shall be liable for loss resulting from loss of or damage to the goods; delay in delivery and any consequential loss or damage arising from such delay in the occurrence which caused such loss, damage or delay in delivery, took place while the goods were in his charge unless the MTO proves that he, his servants or agents or any other person whose services he uses for the performance of the Contract evidenced by this MTD, took all measures that could reasonably be required to avoid the occurrence and its consequences.
- Where fault or neglect on the part of the MTO, his servants or agents or any other person whose services he uses for the performance of the contract evidenced by this MTD, combines with another cause to produce loss or damage or delay in delivery, the MTD shall be liable only to the extent that the loss, damage or delay in delivery which is attributable to such fault or neglect, provided that the MTD proves the part of the loss, damage or delay in delivery not attributable thereto.
- Delay in delivery occurs when the goods have not been delivered within the time expressly agreed upon or in the absence of such agreement, within reasonable time required by a diligent MTD, having regard to the circumstances of the case to effect the delivery of goods.
- If the goods have not been delivered within ninety consecutive days following the date of delivery expressly agreed upon, the claimant may treat the goods as lost.

11. Liability for loss or damage when the stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred is not known:-

- When the MTD is liable to pay compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time of taking them into his charge and the time of delivery and the stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred is not known:
 - Such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the consignee or at the place and time when, in accordance with the contract of the Multimodal Transport, they should have been so delivered.
 - The value of the goods shall be determined according to the current commodity exchange price of such goods in India, or, if there is no such price, according to the current market price, or if there is no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.
- However, the MTD shall not, in any case, be liable to an amount greater than the actual loss to the person entitled to make the claim.
- Where a MTD becomes liable for any loss or damage to the goods in consignment, the nature and value where the loss or damage occurred by the consignor before such consignment has been taken in charge by the MTD and the stage of transport at which such loss or damage occurred is not known, then the liability of the MTD to pay compensation shall not exceed two Special drawing rights per kilogram of the gross weight of the consignment lost or damaged or 666.67 Special Drawing Rights per package or unit lost or damaged, whichever is higher.
- Notwithstanding anything contained above if the multimodal transportation does not, according to the multimodal transport contract, include carriage of goods by sea or by inland waterways, the liability of the MTD shall be limited to an amount not exceeding 2.5 Special Drawing Rights per kilogram of the gross weight of the goods lost or damaged.

12. Liability for loss or damage when the stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred is known:-

- When the MTD is liable to pay compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time of taking them into his charge and the time of delivery and the stage of transport where such loss or damage occurred is known, the liability of the MTD in respect of such loss or damage shall be determined by the applicable Indian law if the loss or damage occurred in India, or by the provisions of the applicable law of the country where the loss or damage occurred, as the case may be. Provisions of the Indian Law or the applicable law outside India:
 - cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the claimant and
 - will be applied if the claimant had made a separate and direct contract with the MTD in respect of the particular stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred.
- Without prejudice to the provisions contained in para 3(2) (b) and (c) mentioned in this document when, under the provision of condition (1) mentioned above, the liability of the MTD shall be determined by the provisions of the Law referred to condition (1) above the liability shall be determined as though the MTD was a carrier referred to in such law. However, the MTD shall not be exonerated from liability where the loss or damage is caused or contributed to by the acts or omissions of the MTD in his capacity as such, or his servants or agents when acting in such capacity and not in the performance of the carriage.

13. Defence and limits for the MTO and his servants:-

- The defence and limits of liability provided for in this MTD shall apply in action against the MTD in respect of loss resulting from loss of or damage to goods; delay in delivery and any consequential loss or damage arising from such delay.
- If any action in respect of loss resulting from loss of, or damage to, the goods or from delay in delivery is brought against the servant or agent of the MTD, if such servant or agents proves that he acted within the scope of his employment, or against any other person of whose service he makes use for the performance of the Multimodal Transport Contract, if such other person proves that he acted within the performance of the contract, the servant or agent or such other person shall be entitled to invoke under this MTD.
- Except as provided for liability for delay, as mentioned below, the aggregate of the amounts receivable, from the MTD and from a servant or agent or any other person of whose services he makes use of for the performance of the multimodal transport contract shall not exceed the limits of liability provided for in this MTD.

14. Liability or delay:-

The liability of the MTD for loss resulting from delay in delivery as per condition 10 above shall be limited to an amount equivalent to the freight payable for the goods delayed but not exceeding the total freight payable under the multimodal transport contract.

not apply if it is proved that the loss, damage or delay in delivery resulted from an act or omission of the MTO (or his servants or agents or any other person of whose services he makes use for the performance of multimodal transport contract), done with the intent to cause such loss, damage or delay in delivery or recklessly and with knowledge that such loss, damage or delay would probably result.

- Notwithstanding the provisions 13 (2) above, if it is proved that the loss, damage or delay in delivery resulted from an act or omission of a servant or agent (or any person of whose services the MTO makes use for the performance of the multimodal transport contract), done with the intent to cause loss, damage or delay in delivery or recklessly and with knowledge that such loss, damage or delay in delivery would probably result, the servant or agent shall not be entitled to the benefit of limitation of liability provided for in these conditions.

16. Delivery/non-delivery:-

- If the goods are not taken delivery of by the consignee within a reasonable time, after the MTD has called upon him to take delivery, the MTD shall be at liberty to put the goods in safe custody on behalf of the consignee at the consignee's risk and expense or to place the goods at the disposal of the consignee in accordance with the Multimodal Transport Contract or with the law, or with the usage of the particular trade applicable at the place of delivery.
- The MTD shall be discharged from his obligation to deliver the goods if, where a negotiable MTD has been issued in a set of more than one original, he, or a person acting on his behalf, has in good faith delivered the goods against surrender of one of such originals.

17. Notice of loss, damage or delay:-

- Unless notice of loss or damage, specifying the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the consignee to the MTD at the time of taking over the goods such handing over is prima facie evidence of the delivery by MTD of the goods as described in the MTD.
- Where the loss or damage is not apparent, the provisions of condition (1) referred to above apply correspondingly if notice in writing is not given within six consecutive days after the day when the goods were handed over to the consignee.
- If the state of the goods at the time they were handed over to the consignee has been the subject of a joint survey or inspection by the parties or their representatives at the place of delivery, notice in writing need not be given of loss or damage ascertained during such surveyor inspection.
- In the case of any actual or apprehended loss or damage the MTD, and the consignee shall give all reasonable facilities to each other for inspecting and tallying the goods.
- If any of the notice periods provided for in condition (2) and (4) referred to above terminates on a public holiday at the place of delivery, such periods shall be extended up to the next working day.
- Notice given to a person acting on behalf of the MTD including any person of whose services he makes use at the place of delivery, shall be deemed to have been given to the MTD.

18. Freight and charges:-

- Freight shall be deemed earned on receipt of goods by MTD and shall be paid for, in any event.
- For the purpose of verifying the freight basis, the MTD reserves the right to have the contents of the containers, trailers or similar articles of transport inspected in order to ascertain the weight, measurement, value or nature of the goods.
- All dues, taxes and the charges levied on the goods and other expenses in connection therewith, shall be paid by the consignor or the consignee or the holder of MTD or the owner of the goods.

19. Containers, etc.:-

- Goods may be stowed by the MTD by means of containers, trailers, transportable tanks, flats, pallets or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods and these articles of transport may be stowed under on deck.
- If a container has not been filled, packed or stowed by the MTD, the MTD shall not be liable for any loss of, or damage to, its contents and the consignor shall cover any loss of expense incurred by the MTD, if such loss, damage or expense has been caused by:
 - negligent filling, packing or stowing of the containers; or
 - the contents being unsuitable for carriage in container; or
 - the unsuitability or defective condition of the container unless the container has been supplied by the MTD and the unsuitable or defective condition would not have been apparent upon reasonable inspection at, or prior to, the time when the container was filled, packed and stowed.
- The provisions of this condition also apply with respect to trailers, transportable tanks, flats and pallets which have not been filled, packed or stowed by the MTD.
- The MTD does not accept liability for the functioning to reefer equipment or trailers supplied by the consignor.
- If, by order of the authorities of any place, the goods have to be unpacked from their containers to be inspected, the MTD shall not be liable for the loss or damage incurred during the unpacking, inspection or re-packing. The MTD shall be entitled to recover the cost of unpacking, inspection and repacking from the consignor/consignee.

20. Hindrance, etc. affecting performance:-

The MTD shall use reasonable endeavours to complete the transport and to deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.

21. Lien:-

The MTD shall have a lien on the goods for any amount due under this multimodal contract and for the costs of recovering the same, and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner.

22. Limitation of action:-

- Any action relating to multimodal transport under these condition shall be time-barred if judicial proceedings have not been instituted within a period of nine months after:
- the date of delivery of the goods, or
 - the date when the goods should have been delivered, or
 - the date on and from which the party entitled to receive has the right to treat the goods as lost.

23. Jurisdiction:-

- In judicial proceedings relating to the contract for MTD under these condition the plaintiff, at his option, may institute an action in a court which according to the law of the country where the court is situated, is competent and within the jurisdiction of which is situated one of the following places:
- the principal place of business or, in the absence thereof, the habitual residence of the defendant or
 - the place where the multimodal transport contract was made, provided that the defendant has there a place of business branch or agency at such place; or
 - the place of taking charge of the goods for multimodal transportation or the place of delivery thereof, or
 - any other place specified for that purpose in the multimodal transport contract and evidenced in the MTD.

24. General average:-

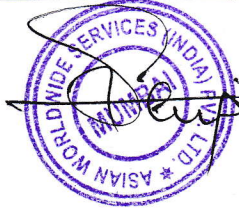

The consignor or Consignee the holder of the MTD, the receiver and the owner of the goods shall indemnify MTO in respect of any claims of the general average nature which may be made on him and shall provide such security as may be required by the MTO in this connection.

25. Arbitration:-

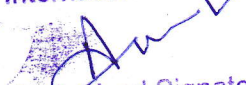

Suitable provisions may be incorporated, by the parties to the Multimodal Transport Contract.
